

junior resource guide

COLLEGE of CHARLESTON

GREEK LIFE

Join the Greek

Honor Societies! Order of Omega and Rho Lambda honor Greek students who have excelled academically. Not quite there? Check out the Center for Student Learning!

Stay Involved! Being an upperclassman means there are more opportunities for involvement. Check out all the organizations on campus.

Build your Resume!

Become a peer educator, take a position on your chapter's or your council's executive boards, become a Resident Assistant with Residence Life.

Be Responsible!

Know the resources available for Substance Abuse and Victim Services. Be familiar with the campus Public Safety office and how it can help you.

Practice Peer Accountability!

Set an example in your chapter and be sure to hold others responsible in their actions. Build healthy relationships and create lifelong friendships.

Use your Resources!

Like the Dean of Students office, Counseling Services for any personal concerns, Student Health Services, and many other departments.

Check the Greek Calendar

to find out what events and programs are going on! Remember every day is recruitment, represent your chapter well!

Need a Job?

Work with the Career Center and check their CISTEROnline system for assistance!

Participate in our Greek Leadership Series Programs!

Greek Leadership Institute, Varsity Leadership Academy, Book Clubs, workshops & speakers.

Relieve some Stress!

Take advantage of intramural sports, fitness facilities, and classes as well as other fun events put on by CAB and the Office of Student Life!

Continue to Build your Leadership Skills!

Apply for Leadership CofC, go to the Fall Leadership Conference, participate in Dance Marathon, and attend LeaderShape.